This month...

We focused on exploring the world of trajectory, and the children have been loving it. Experimenting with different styles of paper airplanes, wall ball, mini hockey, and more.

We have also enjoyed a lot of indoor gross motor games to keep them moving in the extreme cold!

Next Month...

We will be continuing our exploration into trajectory, as well as including some connecting activities as the children have shown a lot of interest in these areas!

Some of these activities will include building challenges, hoop tossing, crafting, sensory activities, and lots of outside time!

Happy Birthday!!
